Jean Carrington Cook, Fairfax pianist, will be presented in Lecture-Recital Wednesday, Feb. 26 by the Northern Virginia Music Teachers Association. The National Federation of Music Clubs has designated February as the month to honor American composers.

Maxine H. Boulter, American Music Program Chairman, states that the program will feature works of the world renowned pianist and Virginia composer, John Powell. The Governor of Virginia has proclaimed February 7 and 8 to be set aside to celebrate the compositions and works of Powell. Powell was a pupil of Leschetizsky of Vienna and returned to Richmond to set the folk idiom to music which was dear to his heart and which he had heard from his childhood. Cook a former pupil of John Powell and Florence Robertson has been asked to play in the Festival for the Bicentennial Celebration in Richmond and the State.

Born in Richmond, Cook began piano lessons at the age of five. She attended Converse College in South Carolina and was graduated prior from St. Catherine's School in Richmond and then from Syracuse University with a Bachelor of Music degree. Her early work was under Virginia Haslett Wylie, Ellen Guigon and Florence Richardson Robertson, concert pianist. She has studied with such masters as John Powell, Ernst Bacon and Heinrich Gebhard. She has been studying for ten years with Alexander Lipsky of New York and Washington. Her guest performances have been with the Syracuse Civic Orchestra and at the University of Virginia in Charlottesville.
